Bible study just got a little more interesting, thanks to the new production, Girlfriends & God: The Retreat. This production is an act of faith and a work of heart that is inspired by the book, “Girlfriends & God”. “The Retreat” centers around a collage of stories of women who use the Girlfriends and God devotionals to work through life issues. Ms. Kristy welcomes a group of women for a week-long retreat. Her home is situated in the beautiful hills of Hermann, MO. Each day we learn about the women through their revealing monologues that gives the audience a peek into their past. The retreat ends with a surprising occurrence that binds the girlfriends together.

“Girlfriends & God: The Retreat” challenges the women to “love and not judge” through laughter, tears and friendship. This production is not just for women, but for anyone who enjoys original music, touching monologues, and humor that will allow them to connect to the importance of sharing their story.
